

Needs Analysis Questionnaire

Name: _____

Status: University Student      Graduate
 Employer                              Other

Placement Test Score: _____

How many years have you studied English? _____

When was the last time you studied English? _____

Do you hold an English Certificate? _____

Which ESOL examination are you interested in? _____

Why do you want to study English? _____

Professional Reasons	Studies	Working abroad	Studying abroad	Personal Interest

Which learning method do you prefer?

Face-to-face	Use of the Web in classroom	E-learning with some face-to-face lessons	Online

Which of the following aspects do you need to study more?

Grammar	Vocabulary	Reading	Writing	Listening	Speaking

Have you ever withdrawn from a course? Yes: _____ No: _____

Reasons for Withdrawing
Lack of teacher's support and collaboration
The course content was too difficult / easy

The class was too much work
Lack of individualized instruction
Lack of challenging/ interesting coursebooks
Personal reasons conflicted with school
Other (please explain)

Learning Styles

1. What kind of learning material would you like to study?

- a. A book with lots of pictures, tables and charts
- b. A book with audiovisual material (videos etc)
- c. A digital book with interactive tasks

2. When you are not sure how to spell a word, what do you do?

- a. Write it down to see if it looks right
- b. Spell it out loud to see if it sounds right
- c. Trace the letters in the air (finger spelling)

3. When you see the word "cat," what do you do first?

- a. Picture a cat in your mind
- b. Say the word "cat" to yourself
- c. Think about being with a cat (petting it or hearing it purr)

4. What's the best way for you to study for a test?

- a. Read the book or your notes and review pictures or charts
- b. Have someone ask you questions that you can answer out loud
- c. Make up index cards that you can revise

5. What's the best way for you to learn about how something works?

- a. Get someone to show you
- b. Listen to someone explain it
- c. Figure it out on your own

6. What do you find most distracting when you are trying to study?

- a. People walking past you
- b. Loud noises
- c. An uncomfortable chair

8. What is the best way for you to remember a new word?

- a. Picture the letters and the meaning of the word
- b. Say it out loud again and again
- c. Write it down